

SCHOLARSHIP	AMOUNT	CRITERIA	Deadline	NOTES
E. Val Murphy	Reimbursable, up to $1,000 each for room, meals and/or registration for the Annual Event	Consideration given to: --Ethnic minority persons who are working on the field of Christian Education or are students majoring in Christian Education --Christian Educators in the field, professional or volunteer --Christian Education students Mail in two letters of recommendation and a photo	October 1	--Number of scholarships to be awarded decided by the MAS Committee, depending on funds available --Preference given to first time attendees
Small Church	Pays for the early bird registration for Annual Event plus one year's membership	A small church is defined by PCUSA General Assembly criteria = 100 or less in average attendance in worship. Preference given to Educators, volunteer or professional	September 15	--10 to award --Preference given to first time attendees
Global Partnership	Reimbursable, minimum of $750, according to the website	Awarded to international participants, affiliated with one of our partner denominations, outside North America, preference given toward first time attendees of the Annual Event Applicant must have letter of recommendation from a church governing body	October 1	--2 to award --Preference given to first time attendees
Certification Course offered at the Annual Event	$150 of course registration covered	Awarded to first 6 applications received Applicants must be currently enrolled in the educator certification process through their denomination	First 6 received	--6 to award --APCE product sales support this scholarship --Preference given to first time attendees
Regional	Pays for early bird registration for Annual Event plus one year's membership	First time attendee of Annual Event, preference given to racial ethnic/multi-cultural	November 15 – application to regional rep. Communicated to MAS Chair by Nov. 30	--Marketplace income helps to provide this scholarship --Regional rep receives completed application form (14 regions) --Preference given to first time attendees
Retired Educators	Reimbursable up to $1,000	Retired Educator, served as a church educator, been a member of APCE 10 or more years, priority given to the region where the Annual Event occurs.	November 15 - nomination by Regional Rep where the Annual Event is held and reported to MAS Committee Chair by November 30	--May receive this only once --New in 2008

*Only one scholarship may be awarded to a person, in the same year.